3. National Federation of the Blind Crafters Division

This division functions as a support/ teaching/ learning opportunity for blind individuals who enjoy crafts. Joyce Kane started the division in 2008. Living her life primarily as a sighted person, Joyce was shocked when she awoke from heart surgery and found herself totally blind. Joyce refused to give up the activities she loved, so with determination, Joyce began to develop strategies and techniques that would allow her to continue crafting beautiful handmade creations. Joyce felt that there must be others like herself, so she reached out to the National Federation for the Blind and began to create a division where she and others could exchange ideas, teach, and create. The Blind Crafters Division has grown to include sixty-three members with international members from Canada, South Africa, England, Singapore, and Australia. The division holds a weekly “Monday Night Chat” at 8:30 pm Eastern. The conference call-in number is (605)475-4000, and the access code is 966659. All are welcome to join. Please visit the website at www.krafterskorner.org for additional information.

For those who use JAWS, please note that Krafters and Korner are spelled with the letter K, as a tribute to Joyce Kane. Dues are $20 per year and include unlimited classes that are taught via conference call or email. Additionally, the first class, a listserv membership, and “Monday Night Chats” are free of charge.
